Four Nigerian Educators Visit ECC to Gather Data

Four Nigerian educators visited the El Camino College campus this week to gather information for the development of general education in their native country. "We are in a great hurry to educate our people because much time has been lost in the past," Dr. J. B. C. Okala, senior lecturer in education at the University of Nigeria, Nsukka, said. With Dr. Okala were B. M. Somade, chief inspector of education, western Nigeria; Mallam Garba Kaita, senior visiting teacher, native authority, Katsina, northern region, and M. O. Iman, assistant advisor on teacher training, federal government of Nigeria.

UCLA Offers Tax Course At Board Hall

The Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors has consented to provide classroom facilities at their board hall for a UCLA extension course entitled "Income Tax Aspects of Real Estate." The 21st District Realty Exchangers, a study group from boards of realtors in the southwest area, has arranged to open the extension to most real estate licensees and members of the general public who may qualify. The 12-week course, taught by UCLA staff member Robert Snell, began Monday. Classes will be held at the Torrance-Lomita Board Hall, 22833 S. Arlington, each Monday morning, 8 to 10:30.

FOOD GIANT
 "I buy the best meat here!"

"It's such a pleasure to buy meat here! The clerks are so courteous and I can always be sure that the meat is fresh, tender and delicious or every penny of my money will be refunded! This is an important factor with five children to provide for! I love shopping at Food Giant!"
 Ms. Clare Fry, a satisfied customer at Food Giant, Covina

MEAT QUALITY CONTROL MAKES THE DIFFERENCE!
 As part of our meat quality control program, Food Giant executives and meat experts sample, savor, criticize and comment on meats, chosen at random from our markets, and control in our own kitchen. Food Giant's "Meat Quality Control" means better meat for you!
